PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

NUMISMATICS — the study and collecting of coins, medals, tokens, paper money and other related items. That is what NCNA is all about. I received something in the mail this week which reminded me of the study part of our hobby. It was an application form to attend the American Numismatic Association Summer Seminar. It is held on the campus of Colorado College in Colorado Springs from June 26th to July 2nd. The ANA headquarters building is also on the campus. The courses of study offered this year are: Coin Photography, Coinage of the Ancient World, Effective Coin Club Management, Morgan and Peace Dollars, Detection of Counterfeit and Altered Coins, Commemorative Coins and U.S. Gold, and U.S. Coin Grading. Seven good courses of study, and a chance to visit the ANA library and museum. You will get to meet many other numismatist and the staff of the ANA. If you are interested, give the ANA a call or write for information. If you attend this year, I hope you will share what you learned with me and the NCNA.

Best Wishes

Winborne F. Springs
President

INFORMATION SOUGHT ON NC BANK NOTES

Jim Sazama, Box 1235, Southern Pines NC 28387 is seeking information on all notes issued by private banks in North Carolina between 1804 and 1870. He is also seeking information about script issued by cities, counties, merchants or banks between 1800 and 1900. The finished manuscript will be published in book form, hopefully by the summer of 1990. Jim says "I hope to bring credit (ed's note: no pun intended) to our state, as I feel we had one of the strongest banking systems throughout the 1804-1870 period and more research is necessary to tell the whole story."

SPECIAL NUMISMATIC NEWS ON THE FUTURE OF US COINS

Will the circulating coinage of the U.S. — the coins you now use to purchase everything from a daily paper to a hamburger — receive a "face lift" in the not too distant future?

The hobby professionals at NUMISMATIC NEWS have been supporting such a move for more than a year now. Later this year they will be producing a special "53rd" issue that will not only address this question, but will also take a look at its potential affect on the hobby as well as review other periods of major redesign in U.S. coinage history.

This special issue — US COINS — INFO ON THE FUTURE — is scheduled to be mailed to more than 135,000 coin collectors on June 27, 1988. To receive a copy, free of charge, write to: NUMISMATIC NEWS, Special Issue, 700 E. State St., Iola WI 54990.

OUR COVER

The coin pictured on the front cover of this issue is the 2 pence of the Falkland Islands. This bronze coin was issued from 1984 through 1982. It depicts a Magellanic goose on the reverse and Queen Elizabeth II on the obverse. It was part of a set that depicted the animals of these island in the South Atlantic.

SIGN UP A NEW MEMBER TODAY

Use the attached membership application to do your part to help the North Carolina Numismatic Association by signing up a new member today. At A Board of Directors meeting, the Board created a new membership classification: Joint Membership. This allows two members of the same household, either husband and wife or parent and child, to both be full members of NCNA at a reduced rate. Both would have full voting privileges, but only one copy of the NCNA JOURNAL will be mailed to the Joint Members.

Come With Us

Remember when collecting coins was a satisfying hobby? Remember when you could answer an ad and get what you paid for? Remember when the thrill of discovery and the exhilaration of learning made numismatics so worthwhile?

It's still that way in NUMISMATIC NEWS.

Oh, we keep in touch with the reality of today's marketplace. NUMISMATIC NEWS' Coin Market rivals the most sophisticated newsletters — at less than half the price.

But we have never lost our enthusiasm for the hobby and it shows on every page, from Burnett Anderson's reports from Washington to Alan Herbert's Coin Clinic. If you've found your enthusiasm for the hobby flagging; if you've failed to get fair treatment elsewhere; if you think the hobby is on a treadmill to nowhere. Come with us. At NUMISMATIC NEWS we believe the best is yet to come.
